Torre de la Horadada is a Spanish town located on the Mediterranean Sea. The local beaches are well known for their fine sand and crystal waters. Its popularity during the busy summer months means that the town's population can quadruple in size. In recent years Torre de la Horadada has become the home to many expatriate residents from northern Europe, mainly from the UK and Ireland. This has led to the all year round sustainability of the town. Although it's a small coastal town Torre boasts various local services such as a medical center, supermarkets and two main plazas, "Pueblo Latino" and "The Square" home to a great variety of bars, restaurants and ice cream parlors. 30 minutes from RMU Corvera Airport and 50 minutes from ALC Alicante International Airport
