DESCRIPCION

You have to visit this dream property to believe it! This roman style villa has 1200m2 build is a copy of a roman villa in Pompeii ! Driving up the royal driveway you can park your car outside or in the huge garage (7 cars) Entering this huge villa through a majestic entrance gate you will find yourself in the open Patio. On the photo's you will notice it was closed that day for the sun. Almost all doors give entrance to this Roman patio with its countless pillars. There are 3 salons all with sea view towards Altea. Next to the salon there is a dining room connected to the kitchen. Next to this kitchen is a really big bedroom and bathroom for a servant (Butler) All bedrooms have an en-suite bathroom. There is a private pool area with summer kitchen. Most off all it is very private and it has sea view! The Don Cayo Golf Altea is on the feed of this luxury villa (Prior to a visit we first need to make a brief profile of the buyer).
